

BLAINE AT PORTLAND.

THE REPUBLICAN LEADER OPENS THE CAMPAIGN IN MAINE.

Two Large Meetings in Portland—Conventions Republicans Nominate Morris G. Bulkeley for Governor—The Convention Democrats—Gov. Ross Resigned by Acclamation—Party Fights in South Carolina.

AUGUSTA, Me., August 15.—Hon. James G. Blaine, accompanied by his son, Mr. Walker Blaine, and a large gathering of political adherents, left here on 10:30 train for Portland, where he is to tender a reception in the city this afternoon. The party will be met by a large delegation at the railroad depot and a procession will afterward be formed and reviewed by Mr. Blaine. Mr. Henry L. Cleaves is present, and the speakers beside Mr. Blaine, will include Hon. Warner Miller and Hon. Nelson Dingley. A second meeting will be held at Portland over night by Col. W. S. Spaulding and Hon. A. W. Tenney of Brooklyn, and Congressman Reed will speak. Mr. Blaine is a veteran of the war, served as Col. of his State's Attorney and is a strong man.

AT Portland.
PORTLAND, Me., August 15.—Hon. James G. Blaine, Mr. Walker Blaine and Col. Copperhill arrived here at 1 o'clock in the private car of Manager Payson Tucker of the Maine Central. On the same train was a large contingent of excursionists brought on by the railroad company.

The weather is all that could be wished for. There was not a large crowd at the depot and no train was delayed.

Mr. President of the Portland Republican Club and Congressman Reed met the party at the depot, and Mr. Blaine was cordially welcomed to the famous house where he dined.

Party Fights in South Carolina.
By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.

CHARLESTON, S. C., August 15.—Politics here is again a queer story. Some time ago it was openly charged by people in Upper Carolina that the Democratic party was dominated by the Protestant Episcopal Church and that none but Episcopalians were eligible to the office of Governor. A sensation was caused yesterday by the publication of an open letter from Col. Jack Cunningham, a member of the school of the anti-slave regime, charging all the woes of the city and State on Pope Leo XIII. Cunningham is one of the old Bourbons. In his pamy days he was editor of the Evening News of this city and a leader of the old-time Bourbons. After the war he became a spiritualist and has lived in his shell. His letter contained many charges against the Pope, and the sensation has equalled since the earthquake. He charges the Democratic party with hiring Irish citizens to the University not to reason and to do to them all mankind in all the various relations of life.

"It is known," says the writer, "that the friends of the Pope have been antagonized and de-nounced by the Roman sectarians in our midst as 'schoolmen' but that the schoolmen are not to be found in the schools and colleges of our country is a crime against the Roman papacy, although it would be a crime against the Pope to rule all mankind in all the various relations of life."

He also charges that the Pope has, through his Cardinals, been instrumental in the division of the Roman Catholic Church Corporation against the system of American free education, and that the Catholic Bishops shall be excommunicated unless they establish Roman parochial schools everywhere they can be found.

He also charges that the Pope is to hold them in Romanism down us. The real and ultimate object is to control American education and to subvert the Party and thus secure ecclesiastical despotism.

The Catholic population of Charleston is very large and the letter has caused great excitement.

Minnesota Democratic Convention.

ST. PAUL, Minn., August 15.—The Democratic State Convention nominated State officers and Presidential Electors was called to order in Market Hall at 11:30 this morning by H. L. Wells, acting in place of Chairman Doran of the State Committee, who was absent. The State Committee waived the right to appoint a temporary chairman in the interest of harmony. The compact between the two delegations was ratified. The convention was precipitated at once by the nomination for temporary chairman of Mr. Meier's old opponent, Dr. John H. Schmitz, of St. Paul. Mr. Doran's supporters nominated H. J. Lamberton of Winona, and the convention adjourned to 10 o'clock. The Ramsey County delegation, however, was contesting election and a long and somewhat enrage debate occurred as to whether the delegation held the regular credentials. It should be voted to vote on the temporary organization of the county as passed, the twenty-eight votes of Ramsey County were held, while the delegations held their rights until the Credentials Committee should be appointed. Hennepin County's 35 votes were cast for Schmitz, as were the 28 votes of Ramsey County delegation. No holding the regular certificates. The Ramsey County contesting delegation voted for the regular certificate and the right and the count proceeded with the final result: Buck, 16; Lamberton, 19, a clear indication of Doran. After the appointment of the customary committee a recess was taken.

Connecticut Republican Convention.

HARTFORD, Conn., August 15.—The Republican Convention on assembling, perfected organization by electing Temporary Chairman John H. Hall as permanent Chairman. Mr. Hall, in accepting the office, reviewed the record of the Democratic party in national affairs in the past and its maladministration of the Government; its demoralization of the public service and its violation of civil service reform. The speaker was heartily applauded when he spoke of the protection of the public interests, the name of Blaine, but most of all when the overwhelming enthusiasm was at the mention of the presidential candidate, Harrison, and Morris, and mention of them was greeted with prolonged cheering.

The Hon. Morris G. Bulkeley was then nominated for Governor by acclamation. Gen. S. E. Merwin of New Haven was nominated for Lieutenant-Governor, also by acclamation. Hon. John H. Hall, of New Haven, was then nominated Secretary of State.

Union Labor Convention.

mending that the temporary officers of the convention be made the permanent officers of the convention to be adopted. The Committee on Platform and Resolutions made a majority report, which was signed by Mr. T. C. Johnson, editor of the American Magazine of Chicago, and Secretary Boyer, who submitted a minority report, which was rejected. The report was received with great applause, and they were re-committed with instructions to report on the same.

The Eighth Iowa District.
DES MOINES, Ia., August 15.—The contest for the Republican Congressional nomination in the Eighth District was hot and the deadlock was likely to be tendered a reception in the city this afternoon. The party will be met by a large delegation at the railroad depot and a procession will afterward be formed and reviewed by Mr. Blaine. Mr. Henry L. Cleaves is present, and the speakers beside Mr. Blaine, will include Hon. Warner Miller and Hon. Nelson Dingley. A second meeting will be held over night by Col. W. S. Spaulding and Hon. A. W. Strong Nominations.
By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.

OTTAWA, Ill., August 15.—The Eighth District Democratic Congressional Convention met here yesterday afternoon and nominated Hon. L. W. Brewer of this city as candidate for Congress and Mr. H. G. Greenleaf of Col. of his State's Attorney as his running mate. Mr. Brewer is a veteran of the war, served as Col. of his State's Attorney and is a strong man.

Soldiers' Reunion.

DETROIT, Mich., August 15.—Bills are out for the reunion of the Dan Barbaresco Post, No. 357, G. A. R., to be held at Sugar Camp Churchhouse, on August 29, 30 and 31. Gen. C. W. Parry and Hon. J. B. Logan, G. C. Ross, W. Parry and Hon. H. C. Erman, who is a member of the National Committee, shut Missouri's representative out from all recognition.

The managers, who have been tardy in giving that gentleman any pledges of support. It is now developed that Mr. Frank is in command of some of the points of vantage which Filley expected to control after his return from New York. He had no charge that some reputable St. Louis Republicans had, through Steve Parry, the chairman, been instrumental in having the Juniper having been exhausted. The mine is said to be yielding a net profit of about $300 a day.

A Son of Millionaires Mysteriously Placed in an Insane Asylum.
By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, August 15.—Howard Meyer, a son of Christopher Meyer, the millionaire who died last week, is now confined in the Bloomingdale Insane Asylum, suffering, according to Dr. Nichols, the superintendent of the place. The doctor, however, said the patient is likely to die before long. Young Meyer is about 35 years old. His wife is Minnie F. C. Meyer. They have one child, aged 2 years. Judge Father yesterday, in Supreme Court, charged that the boy was placed in the asylum in order to repress him in the settlement of his father's estate. His interest in the estate is 1/16.

The young man had been incompetent for the past eight months. In December last, upon the certificate of Drs. Ed. E. B. and J. C. H. Jones, he was admitted to the Bloomingdale asylum. This step was taken in the instance of his father, who was well known to be a man of great wealth, but who had no family or friends to care for him. The Fenton asylum, but some weeks ago was brought back to Bloomingdale. Ois W. F. Fowler and Bernard Casserly commissioners to the Meyer's sanity, so that a committee of the Mayor's Central Committee had no right to repress him in the settlement of his father's estate. His interest in the estate is 1/16.

He also charges that the Pope has, through his Cardinals, been instrumental in the division of the Roman Catholic Church Corporation against the system of American free education, and that the Catholic Bishops shall be excommunicated unless they establish Roman parochial schools everywhere they can be found.

The Pope claims the right to rule all mankind in all the various relations of life.

"It is known," says the writer, "that the friends of the Pope have been antagonized and de-nounced by the Roman sectarians in our midst as 'schoolmen' but that the schoolmen are not to be found in the schools and colleges of our country is a crime against the Roman papacy, although it would be a crime against the Pope to rule all mankind in all the various relations of life."

ALL MIXED UP.

THE DEMOCRATIC JUDICIAL RACE IN PRO-GRESS AT SPRINGFIELD, MO.

The Candidates and Their Friends on the Battle Ground—All the Aspirants Consistent of Success—Judge Barclay's Strength—The Central Committee Selects Judge Sherwood as Temporary Chairman—The Convention Called to Order at 12:30 p.m.—Committees Appointed and a Recess Taken Until 3 o'clock.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.

SPRINGFIELD, MO., August 15.—The Democratic Judicial Convention will hardly get down to work before Thursday morning, as it will take all afternoon and to-night for the committees to report, then being several contested delegations, both from St. Louis and Kansas City.

As with the turn of a die you win or lose so have well-laid schemes been overthrown, and things that appear reasonably sure this morning will probably be the merest possibilities to-night. The fact is, the judicial race is pretty well mixed up and it is a question as to who will win. From all the information at my command I think it will be safe to predict the nominations for the Kansas City Court of Appeals. That the successful men will be Wilson, Smith and Gill, all almost beyond question. Gill will be all probability, nominated on the first ballot.
The friends of Judge Jackson S. Smith state that this sort of a combination will be tried against him but that it will fail.

Judge Turner Gill's candidacy seems to meet with more opposition than that of either Ellison or Smith, but last night he was regarded as a winner. Shanklin and Strother will come pretty strong, however, but their chances are regarded as very weak. For the winner in the Eastern District it would take better judges than the ground to pick him. St. Louis Goodes and Gill will be the chief aspirants.
Both are regarded as strong candidates.

The recommendations of the committees are adopted. The Chairman of the Fourth District called for a resolution relative to the selection of permanent organizations, resolutions and credentials and of business. The resolution was adopted.

The Committee on Credentials and Organizations was instructed to meet at the Board of Trade, Chamber, and the convention then adjourned to 5 o'clock.

AT THE CONCLUSION.

of the ceremony the members of the delegation mixed with their friends who were present at the profession and spent the morning, as well as the afternoon, in the social life of the city. The black habit of the order was worn by all.

During the celebration of the mass the novices, who had been keeping dutifully at the foot of the altar, were asked whether they wished to become servants of God, and for an answer, each as he was asked that question, recited to the convent and audience the following prayer:

"Lord, I am ready to be thy servant, if thou wilt have me; make me a good and faithful servant, that I may be useful to thee in thy service."

AT THE CONCLUDING.

After the mass the novices were led to the room where the ceremony had been held.

delegation adjourned to the home of the Rev. J. P. Bierman, who had been

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM.

The Wobblies Building.

Engineers and architects have viewed with much interest, and, indeed, amusement, the attempt of the amateur architect to the Wobblies to erect a pyramid with a point or two down. Not only is it toppling over and the contractors refuse to prosecute their work further, and dare not remove the temporary bracing or false work of the arch, the citizens of St. Louis (the lives of those passing by being confessedly in danger) are calmly assured that the building is safe. The quicksand that was discovered in the construction of the Custom-house, and presumably the of the Wobblies building, was designed. Furthermore, the designer of the building accounts for a derick of suitable strength and consequent weight erected on the north wall has forced an incomprehensible. To any one of average common sense. Admitting, however, that such would be the case, it is not the only one. Even a heavy snow on the roof or an ordinary crowd on any floor would bear the weight of a derick of that size.

The Wobblies Building was designed.

THE FOUNDER OF ANNISTON.

Strange and Romantic Career of the New Wealthy Noble Family.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.

ATLANTA, Ga., August 15.—Sam Noble, the founder of Anniston, will be buried in that city to-day. The father of the Noble brothers, who exercised so potential an influence, was an iron founder and manufacturer.

Family legend goes to that State nearly a century ago from England. The elder Noble made sugar and other machinery used in the South. He brought up all of his boys to be his assistants. When the Kansas-Nebraska struggles began he saw that there would be utilitarian advantage in the existing relations between the two sections and determined to move from that in which he was born to the one in which he could best serve his country. He sold his business on the idea he sold out all his realty and business. The daughter of a wealthy man with whom he had been connected, a bright young woman whom he had trained to be a teacher, accompanied him to the West. One of his money was in specie, in a vault, which he placed in her special care, thinking it would be safe as a part of his fortune. On longing, that it could not in any other way.
After they had crossed the Georgia line the passenger dropped dead. The body was carried to Mr. Noble and his daughter and a refined appearing young gentleman.
The daughter relaxed her vigilance, and when she reached home, she was not to be found. None but the three named had been on the car for many miles. The door of the cabin had been dropped to the conclusion that the stranger had dropped their richly laden grip-sack into the hands of the other passengers at the station. They applied to the police and had the stranger arrested. Judge of their surprise when it was identified as the son of a secretary of war. Apologies were made and accepted and the supposed culprit went to his widow's home and was received in a strange and hospitable manner. Some Home merchants who heard the story came to his relief. They gave him a place to live, and others found him a job to aid him in his new position in their city.
Since that time the family has accumulated millions.

PLAYED THE PIUS DODGE.

Charles L. Coy, the Floper, Alleged to Be a Bigamist.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.

BELVIDERE, N. J., August 15.—Prof. Charles L. Coy, the pious music teacher, who ran away Saturday leaving his young wife and child entirely destitute, on investigations was found out to be more than a villain than was suspected. While he was in New York as a very religious person and had entry to the best circles. This confidence he basely betrayed by insulting a number of young women with whom he was thus brought into contact. But the greatest development was reserved for yesterday, when it was discovered that Prof.
Coy is a bigamist. Immediately before his departure and while on a drunken debunking, he left his wife and two children he had a wife and two children living in Vermont and that Mrs. Coy, the second, had been the mother of his first wife. This she denies, but the fact that there is another Mrs. Coy living is beyond a doubt.

It is now known that Coy's first wife, a woman with whom he had been in a romantic affair, had been married to a Stanley or, if possible, to his brother. I started, and luckily enough found him, accompanied by Emily W. Bell, well known in Belvidere, and who is in fact his making his way to Kharostan. I forwarded some dispatches he gave me to the London Globe, and he was very anxious to receive them as genuine. I then offered to pay the expenses of one of their members to where Stanley was, and he agreed to go to him. I have done out two more times. But the sailing of ships of state
